

Collection depth and associate detections across all 205 specimens

Depth marks show individual specimens below the Physalia host-group summaries; fractions show accepted detections.

Depth intervals are shown without imputed midpoints. Detection categories use different reference catalogs and are not comparable richness estimates.